

Instead of building in unused lands, the university acquired a property that used to be a condominium but due to the economic crises in 1996, the building were not occupied. The building was evaluated for occupancy new buildings were built as needed. Some buildings were repaired instead. This site is now called Huachiew Chalermprakiet University 2 (HCU 2)

