

Sport Facilities Open for the General Public to use Free of Charge*

Football field is free upon written request to the Office of the President

Huachiew Chlaermprakiet University allows the public to use its sports facilities free of charge. In case of using the basketball courts or the football field, the university simply requires the visitors to present one valid ID for identification purposes for security reasons.

For several days to weeks of use, the visitors need to send an official request to the university, so the place can be reserved and announcements on the university billboards on the use of sports facilities can be done to avoid conflicting schedules.
